Announcing
Asheville's 13th Annual
Free Public Witch Ritual

Samhain (Halloween) Wed., Oct. 31
8 PM Until, at Unity Center near
Asheville, NC

The Unseely Court

Where: On 4 private, wooded acres at 2041 Old Fanning Bridge Rd. (3 miles West past the Asheville Airport -- between Asheville and Hendersonville and East of Brevard, NC.)

Bring: A broom, a staff, or a hobby-horse-style rod -- or a bell to ring -- and funds to bid on magical items during the Raucous Auction

Wear: Fairy or Elemental Creature costume (Airy, Earthy, Fiery, or Watery); a cape

Details: The Unseely Court is a train of darkly beautiful Fairies who travel from their Summer digs to their Winter Palace every Samhain night...

Led by Titania and Oberon (Queen and King of the Fairies), they walk astride their brooms, staves, or horsey-headed rods, and are often heard on the wind by mortals as they ring bells, sing, chant, and cavort...

What thrills and chills will they experience along their path -- and what dazzling wonders await them when they reach their destination?

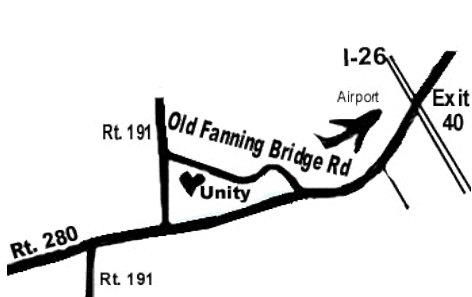

Featuring: A long, slow, candlelit vigil-like snake dance, ethereal music, our traditional Spiral Dance finale, a Raucous Auction, free readings for attendees, live fire/sword/belly dancing, a huge balefire, and the many other delightful surprises you've come to expect!

Conducted by: Lady Passion, High Priestess, and *Diuvei, High Priest (founders of Coven Oldenwilde, a 501(c)(3) religious nonprofit in Asheville, North Carolina in 1994, & authors of The Goodly Spellbook: Olde Spells For Modern Problems)

To offset our costs: Donate via Paypal at: oldenwilde.org or via check/money order (contact Lady Passion for mailing address).

To help prepare for the Rite, donate auction items, play a ritual role, or dance or play music at the Rite: E-mail Lady Passion at: oldenwilde@aol.com or phone: (828) 251-0343.
